AN OPPORTUNITY TO SELL YOUR WORK LOCALLY

s The City of Coquitlam asked me to share the link for artisan applications for the Kaleidoscope Festival this summer. They are particularly interested in having potters there this year.

The link for further information is <https://www.coquitlam.ca/parks-recreation-and-culture/arts-and-culture/special-events-calendar/kaleidoscope-arts-festival>

This message was forwarded from our friends at FVPG with a request to pass it along.

We are wondering if you would be interested in passing along the following invitation to members of the guild who might like to include their wares in the vendor area of the Whalley's Corner Community Festival next month. Any help in spreading the word would be much appreciated. Thanks very much.

Dear Friends,

The Whalley Community Improvement Association is pleased to present the 4th Annual Whalley's Corners Community Festival on Saturday July 7th, 2018.

The Festival takes place from 10 am to 4 pm at Grosvenor Road – 108th and King George Blvd as in past years. Set up time is between 8:00 am and 9:30 am and take down is at 4:00 pm.

We would love to have you join us as a vendor to sell your merchandise during the day. There is no cost for entry and the Festival takes place rain or shine.

We are attempting to be as environmentally friendly as possible so please keep that in mind when utilizing disposal items during the day. You are responsible for your own tent, chairs and other items necessary for your display. Please consider taking any waste generated by your booth away with you.

We have attached the Vendor's Application Form for your convenience. Please email it to whalleycia@gmail.com.

If you have any questions and or would like any additional information please call Jonquil at 604 961 – 2170.

We look forward to your participation.

Some local workshops to consider
(I have not had any information on the availability of spaces)

Fraser Valley Pottery Guild Workshop is pleased to present a two-day workshop with Adam Field. Adam will demonstrate his methods for carving intricate patterns on a variety of wheel-thrown porcelain forms. He will also demonstrate traditional Korean Onggi coil and paddle pottery techniques. From ancient Korean techniques, to innovative solutions for timeless problems, participants will develop a new perspective on creating and decorating functional pottery. Participants will learn new skills for mapping out and carving geometric patterns in clay. Generous discussions about studio practice, aesthetics, materials, ceramic history, and promotion and marketing strategies for the studio potter are certain to encourage individual discovery, growth, and development of fresh ideas. Participants will gain the skills and confidence to create and decorate work in their own voice.

Subject: Pottery Class at Devan Greenhouses?

Hello there:

I am contacting you from a local retail garden center and nursery in Abbotsford.

I heard about your guild from Molly Magid, a potter in Mission.

At our greenhouse, we run a number of classes and workshops every year, usually involving planters and hanging baskets.

We have had some requests for a pottery class, but lack the expertise and materials to teach it ourself - this is why I am contacting you.

With all of our classes and workshops, we utilize pre-registration. There are a variety of options for dates in July, August, or September.

Would you be able to get this message out to the potters that are members of your guild to see if anyone is interested?

Let me know if you have any questions! Hope to hear from you soon.

Regards,

Jared De Bruin
