OCTOBER 2018

This lovely set by Kevin Kowalsky just looks perfect for this time of year. Photo was taken from an advertisement on the talk he is giving this week at AMOCA in Pomona California

This is just inspiration for creative ceramic artists to get busy if they haven't dug right into their fresh boxes of clay.

Meetings are held on the third Wednesday of each month at the

PORT MOODY ART CENTRE
At 7pm sharp

Minutes of our last Monthly Meeting
September 19, 2018
Tri-City Potters
Monthly Meeting
September 19, 2018

1. The members agreed that annual membership fees should be raised to $35
2. We are still waiting for a response from Pitt Meadows Gallery about our exhibition proposal.
3. The AGM is on October 17. We will be voting in a new Executive for 2018-2019 year. It is very important that all members come and participate. Christine is stepping back as the treasurer after 10 years in this position. She is willing to do lighter duties.
4. Members agreed to donate bowls for a fundraising dinner by the Go Gos who raise funds for the Steven Lewis "Grandmothers for Africa". The bowls should have a volume of about ½ litre and be ready by February. At least 60 are needed.
5. Kay passed out a questionnaire asking what members would like to include or improve in the Guild. Please return it at October's meeting.
6. Carlene passes around a "Goodie Sheet" for members to sign up to bring snacks for future meetings.
7. New Member Irena was welcomed
8. Kerry McLaren donated books for members to purchase.
9. Isabella announced an opportunity to take a Ceramic Master Class in Korea. The information is in their website ceramicmasterclass.com

After the refreshments, Linda Lebrun presented a fascinating slide show about her Laos and Ban Chan Clay Experience.

CALL TO ARTISTS - APPLY FOR EXHIBITION AND ARTIST-IN-RESIDENCE PROGRAMS BY NOV. 16

The City of Port Coquitlam invites artists to submit proposals for the following two programs for the 2019 year:

- Exhibitions at the Michael Wright Art Gallery and Outlet Gallery
- Artist-In-Residence Program

Exhibitions

The Michael Wright Art Gallery (MWAG), and Outlet Gallery at Leigh Square feature a rotating program of exhibitions by local and regional artists. The exhibitions advance knowledge, appreciation and understanding of the visual arts by integrating art into everyday life and contributing to the cultural landscape of Port Coquitlam. The gallery welcomes proposals from artists for exhibitions in all media and subject matter, including solo or group shows of two or more artists.

Artist-In-Residence Program

The Leigh Square Artist-in-Residence program is a self-directed residency offering artists the opportunity to research, develop and produce new or ongoing bodies of work, with dedicated studio time in a creative environment. Residencies are for artists or artist collectives working in the visual, performance, literary, and musical arts. In exchange for studio space, artists facilitate public workshops and outreach programs for the local community as part of their residency. The duration of the residency is four months for the following three terms: Jan 1 - April 30, May 1 - Aug 31, Sept 1 - Dec 21, 2019. Artists are required to commit a minimum of 20 hours a week and are supported with an honorarium of $850 dollars for their time.

Please click here to apply online.
